NORTH CAROLINA.

CONGRESS, April 12, 1776.

Resolved, That the Congress have received the remonstrances and suggestions of the people of North Carolina, and that the Congress will give them a fair hearing and consider the same in the light of the public interest.

Signed by order of the Congress.

THOMAS MCKEAH, President.

BOSTON.

Resolved, That the Congress have received the remonstrances and suggestions of the people of North Carolina, and that the Congress will give them a fair hearing and consider the same in the light of the public interest.

Signed by order of the Congress.

THOMAS MCKEAH, President.

NEW YORK.

Resolved, That the Congress have received the remonstrances and suggestions of the people of North Carolina, and that the Congress will give them a fair hearing and consider the same in the light of the public interest.

Signed by order of the Congress.

THOMAS MCKEAH, President.

PHILADELPHIA, June 29.

The Congress have received the remonstrances and suggestions of the people of North Carolina, and that the Congress will give them a fair hearing and consider the same in the light of the public interest.

Signed by order of the Congress.

THOMAS MCKEAH, President.
Open Yale courses

Image courtesy of
Bermuda Rare Book and Manuscript Library, Yale University.