Lecture 3: Technology and Invention in Finance

Economics 252, Spring 2008
Prof. Robert Shiller, Yale University
Key Points

- Pooling risks around the world
- Backus Kehoe and Kydland
- Rapid change in financial technology
- Long-run risks still not managed well
- Role of invention
- Role of psychological framing
- Role of information technology
- John Harsanyi, John Rawls, theory of justice
Key Points, Continued

• Tax system as a risk management device
• Framing and the history of taxes
• Loss aversion, Daniel Kahneman and Amos Tversky
• Insurance as an invention
• Patent law
• Corporation and limited liability
Key Points, Continued

- Inflation indexed debt
- Real estate risk management
- Subprime crisis