

Eighth Directed Exercise Due: Friday, April 8th by 5pm

- Your eighth directed exercise is due on or before 5pm on Friday, April 8th
- Your assignment should be submitted to our Classes V*2 site under “Assignments” as an attached document.
- As you know from the syllabus, because this is a large lecture class, it is important to have explicit and uniform policies. Among those policies is the following:
 - Directed exercises will be marked down 1 point for each 24 hours that they are late (rounded up to the nearest 24 hours).

Exercise:

Please answer your choice of (1) OR (2). Your answer may be very short: 1-3 paragraphs (200-300 words) is plenty.

Your exercise will be worth up to 2 points.

- (1) You are Robert Nozick. Respond to Rawls’ claim that in a just society “while the distribution of wealth and income need not be equal, [any social and economic inequalities must be] reasonably expected to be to everyone’s advantage” (Rawls, p. 303).

OR

- (2) You are John Rawls. Respond to Nozick’s Wilt Chamberlain example. (Nozick, pp. 160-164.)
